METHOD OF EVALUATION

Applicants meeting the minimum qualification requirements for this position may be further evaluated against other job related factors to determine who will be referred to the selecting official. The rating and ranking of candidates to determine the best qualified will be accomplished by comparing the candidate's knowledge, skills and abilities against those of other eligible candidates for each of the evaluation factors. The most important factors will be designated by the letter (H), indicating high. These factors are essential to the successful performance of the duties of the position. The candidate's experience, training, awards and performance appraisal will be considered in the evaluation process. It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide all of the information needed by the closing date of this announcement. Current and/or past supervisors may be contacted unless specified otherwise. Applicants may be interviewed by a panel and/or the selecting official or his/her designee.

In addition to meeting the minimum qualifications and eligibility requirements for special priority consideration, ICTAP candidates must meet the desired level of performance as indicated by the knowledge, skills, and abilities and be rated well qualified. Well qualified is defined as a rating of at least Good on evaluation factors designed as High (H).

EVALUATION FACTORS: It is highly recommended, but not required, that all candidates address and submit the evaluation factors on a separate sheet of paper. To be considered Highly Qualified (HQ), applicants need to receive a rating of "High" (H) in all factors listed below designated (H). For ICTAP eligibles to be considered well qualified, they must receive a rating of "High" (H) in factors 1, 2, & 3, & 5 and a rating of Medium (M) in factor 4. Failure to address these evaluation factors may impact your final rating and/or ranking.

EVALUATION FACTORS: Factors designated (H) are rated high.

1. Knowledge of procurement procedures, laws, regulations and techniques to effectively carry out a full range of grants management assignments. (H)
2. Knowledge of the various types of grants, such as, entitlement, formula-funded or discretionary grants, and the compliance requirements and regulations governing the selection, award and administration of the grants as well as required clauses and special provisions to plan and carry out the grant actions. (H)

3. Skill in providing a level of expertise necessary to evaluate the technical aspects of offerors' proposals and the reasonableness of cost and budget factors. (H)

4. Ability to review organizational structures and procurement management systems employed by various types of assistance recipients, e.g., state and local governments, universities, other private and public organizations, in order to help implement policies and procedures that present the minimum administrative burden for recipients. (H) (M) for ICTAP Candidates

5. Skill in oral and written communications to consult with grantees to plan and carry out grant actions, such as preparing final grant documents and conducting briefings. (H)
